No.106

To Mrs. Maria (Weston) Chapman

«Ashburnham, Mass.» The writer has been requested to invite the addressee to Ashburnham "to give us something that will start us right on the subject of Anti-Slavery." Most of those who professed to be Anti-Slavery in Ashburnham have gone over to C. T. Torrey. The female societies in the town "run very low," mainly because of the "confounded woman question." Wishes to have something said in regard to the merits of the Golden Rule Association. Dwells at length on the local opposition to women's acting in the same society with men. The writer would also like to have something said on Non-Resistance; reflects on the i[illegible]istency of professed Christians toward this principle s ? a The writer returns some papers. Assures Miss Estlin that, since she became interested, she has never been in want of definite information as to the principles of the American and other Anti-Slavery societies. Any apparent wavering in her allusions to the subject must be put down to her great desire to be just to all parties. Though she believes the principle of no Christian fellowship with slaveholders to be scriptural, she would not judge the consciences of those who differ, nor condemn those who believed that uniting with Mr. Garrison involved the propagation of error. Explains her remarks on Mr. Garrison's a[illegible]ting himself from places of worship.

1776 Dec 25 Adams, Samuel, 1722-1803; governor of Massachusetts and member of the Continental Congress.

To James Warren, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

[Baltimore.] Congress is now established in Baltimore. Had not realized the haste in removal so necessary, but later events showed that it had been most unwise to remain longer in Phil. General Schuyler has written that the levies for troops are being handled very slowly in New England. Howe's troops are penetrating the whole country and England is attempting to raise still more forces in foreign countries. On hearing of Clinton's departure for R.I., wrote to Washington with several other gentlemen and asked for General Gates or Green to take command. Spencer and Arnold have been ordered hither. Estimates the Russian force and comments on a vessel which has been seized. Mentions [illegible] Furze'(?) treachery. A.L.S. 4p. 8 x 6 1/4 in.

1866 Agassiz, Jean Louis Rodolphe, 1807-1873; naturalist.
Dec 6

To William H. Warren.

[Cambridge, Mass.] Regrets that he left his correspondence for so long a time, which will account for his not answering sooner the invitation to attend the meeting of the faculty of the theological school. Is too much engrossed in the preparations for his journey to accept any invitations at the present time, but expresses his gratitude to Warren. A.L.S. 2p. 8 x 5 in.

To William Lloyd Garrison No.55

‹Baltimore› Disapproves of certain correspondence in the American, a local newspaper, between three colored ministers and a white man. Two of the ministers are not what they claim to be. They belong to the colored branch of the Methodist Episcopal Church, but they do not preside over any particular church. Their names are John Fortie, Nathaniel Peck and William Levington. Objects to these men stirring up trouble for the colored people in Baltimore. The trustees of the East Baltimore Station "abused the Abolitionists most shamefully," having been duped by a white clergyman. They are opposed to colonizatio[illegible]
